

Twelve Common Human Error Preconditions that Effect Safety in the Workplace

1. Fatigue
2. Lack of assertiveness
3. Norms
4. Pressure
5. Lack of awareness
6. Lack of knowledge
7. Lack of communication
8. Distraction
9. Lack of resources
10. Stress
11. Complacency
12. Lack of teamwork

The original list was developed for aircraft maintenance to improve the safety of repairs and upkeep on aircraft, but are certainly parallels that can be drawn to all aspects of workplace safety.

What are some ways that you can counter these common issues as you work each day to keep your plane safely in the air?

